Angus friends,

It is with great sadness that my wife, Susan; my daughters, Deanna and Dana; and I have decided to sell this great herd of Trails End Angus cattle. I had hoped to put off writing this last letter in a final sales catalog for at least another ten years, but my ongoing eleven-year battle with cancer has forced me to do it sooner.

I loved the genetic work behind this herd and will miss the hours spent trying to figure out the best AI fit for a cow. I will also miss my travels to seek out the best genetics, from the Krebs Ranch at Western Sires in Gordon, Nebraska, (thanks to Eldon and the crew) where I viewed bulls in the hock, to Schaff Angus Valley in Saint Anthony, North Dakota. Along the way, I met Kelly Schaff and Bob Watkins who mentored me and introduced me to some of the finest Angus cattle in the United States.

Most of the bloodlines used in this herd are from Schaff genetics, which have worked very well for Trails End. The AI service sires used this year are some of the most exciting selections I've ever made, including the $1.5 million bull SAV America 8018.

Having a closed herd since 2013—yes, no cows or bulls bought and no fancy ET cows or embryos purchased—I have prided myself in making a trail of fine maternal and performance herd genetics. From my hand to the tip of an AI syringe, Trails End is a homemade, handmade herd. With the exception of one animal, all cows have been born into this herd.

There is no doubt that you will benefit greatly from our twenty-five years of grit and determination to build the herd into what it is today. If you have an established herd and want to buy some great outliers, or if you're looking to start a new Angus herd, the genetics in this catalog are cutting edge and will help put your herd at the forefront of Angus genetics. The cows, bred heifers, and open heifers have front-pasture phenotype and presence. The bulls are performance driven and will add pounds to your next calf crop. It's your time to take advantage of the sweat and toil put into this progressive Trails End Angus herd.

I was looking forward to the excitement of the 2021 calf crop. Like other years, I had planned to be in my barn's bunkhouse where I'd throw a log in the stove (or I might ask Sue to do that), and I'd drink a beer and wait for the next birth, be it 1 a.m. or 4 a.m. (No, I guess I wouldn't drink beer that late!) Plans have changed, though, and this anticipation now gets to be yours.

Thanks to everyone who has helped us, particularly throughout the past eleven years. Your help has been greatly appreciated. Thanks, too, to our past and present customers. And thank you, Conover Auction Service, for endless hours spent and a great job rendered. I am going to miss this business greatly. I hope to see you Monday, December 14, at the Kalona Sale Barn in Kalona, Iowa!

Happy trails to you,
Dean Thomann

Dear Angus Friends

It is with great remorse, but with equal enthusiasm that we have cataloged the Complete Dispersion of the Trails End Angus herd. For more than a two decades Dean and Susan Thomann have built this program with great cattle knowledge, considerable financial resources and most important, the sweat and tears that seem to go hand and hand with the cowboy occupation.

By his own admission, this was the hardest decision ever made but Dean needs to focus now on his health and lighten the burden that a cattle operation of this caliber can place on all family members. Every female in this sale except one, was born and raised on this farm. You will see as you study the catalog that the best performing heifers were held in the program, but they only stayed if they continued to produce their likeness. That is why you will see a disproportionate number of middle-aged cows that just keep getting the job done.

The annual Trails End Production Sale has grown incrementally each year as Dean's customer base and friendships have snowballed. People come here for fellowship and go home with a new-found genetic source. This herd is built on the success of many of the Nation's leading herds through noteworthy herd sire purchases and an extensive artificial insemination program. The Schaff Angus Valley bloodlines have contributed substantially but the Thomanns have reached beyond the North Dakota borders to continue a march towards calving ease, performance and maternal attributes. You will be amazed at the rapid growth, abundant muscle, ample capacity and structural integrity of this herd of cattle.

As a bull customer, you can expect progeny that will attract the most visually discriminating buyers and then crush the scales on sale day. The females have bred-in maternal excellence captured by the Trails End tradition of repeatedly stacking highly proven cow families in each pedigree assuring productivity and longevity.

We welcome back the legions of repeat customers to this final Trails End sales event and invite any newcomers in need of a genetic upgrade to join us on December 14 in Kalona, IA for a memorable Angus sendoff. Your pre-sale inquiries are encouraged by calling our office or any of the contacts provided.

BULL WINTERING AND PARTIAL PAYMENT PROGRAM

All bulls selling in the Trails End Angus Dispersion can be wintered at Trails End Farm from sale day to April 1st to April 4th, 2021 at no cost. These bulls will receive the same feed ration and care that the bulls received in previous years. In addition, yearling weight data will be collected and processed with the American Angus Association.

Bull buyers can take advantage of a 25% down payment option on bulls that are left at the farm with final payment due on pick up date.

Under the provisions of this program, bulls will be guaranteed to pass a fertility examination in the spring of 2021. Buyers assume full responsibility of the bulls they buy on sale day. Insurance will be available at the settlement desk. Buyers will be required to take insurance on bulls left for the wintering program if they take the 25% payment option.
